IN FRIGHTFUL PERIL.

General Miles Thinks the Greatest Battle of Indian History is at Hand and May be Fought Today.

The Situation at Pine Ridge Agency Proves to be Yery Alarming, but the Troops are Prepared.

THE INDIAN WAR.

Strong Probabilities of a Great Battle

Омана, Jan. 6.-The Bee's correspondent at Pine Ridge telegraphed that all is one long continued round of excitement here and an attack from the Indians is momentarily expected.

As to the situation here, considered in its entirety, indications are that the greatest battle in Indian history is almost at hand.

The appearance of every scout adds new and strong support to these indicabloody affair on Wounded Knee.

General Miles believes exactly this and has said some strong words: "Without desiring to make the situation a particle darker than it really is, for God knows the truth is bad enough, everything constrains me to say that the danger in which the Pine Ridge agencies and the white populace stand at this point and must remain until the crisis can well be imagined, and I say this not for a moment forgetting and knowing perfectly just what military protection to make the patrons of the club comwe have here."

Since Gen. Miles arrived he has received the most urgent admonition from the administration to avoid further in the annals of pugilism. A referee learned. be avoided.

Col. Forsythe has Been Relieved. Washington, Jan. 5.-The report of the relief of Col. Forsythe of the command of the seventh cavalry by General Miles is confirmed at the war department to-day. The Fight is On.

Омана, Jan. 5.—A special from Rushville says: "Heavy cannonading is going on north of there this morning but news of the battle is not yet received.

The Omaha guards who volunteered their services have been ordered to hold themselves ready to move to the front. May Cause More Trouble Orders telegraphed from military headquarters to Captain Woods of the 15th cavalry to disarm Indians in the Cheyenne and Araphoe country created the greatest anxiety among settlers of of resistance which is now dormant.

THEY UNDERSTAND BLAINE.

Comments of the London Papers on the Position Blaine Assmes.

London, Jan. 5 .- The Pall Mall Gazette says: "Case for arbitration in the Behring sea dispute is so clear and Lord Salisbury's offer so ample and the feeling that America fovors arbitration is so general and strong it seems necessary to look for Blaine's motives for his warlike attitude elsewhere than in the merits of the case. It is clear that Blaine speaks not for the nation, but for his party. That he means io bluff Ualises, and plays to the anti-English galley." Comments of the St. James Gazette.

The St. James Gazette says: "There is no reason for anticipating a rupture as Blaine's political party is at low
